

Louis J. Barash

Counsel, Litigation

P: 212.403.1346

F: 212.403.2346

LJBarash@wlrk.com

Louis J. Barash is a litigator who practices in Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz's white-collar regulatory area. He primarily advises financial services firms and individuals with respect to criminal and civil regulatory investigations and related civil litigation, and with respect to ongoing compliance with securities laws and regulations. Mr. Barash has worked on numerous prominent securities and tax investigations.

Mr. Barash received a B.A. in philosophy from Union College in 1976, where he graduated magna cum laude and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He received his J.D. from Duke Law School where he was a member of the Duke Law Journal.

Mr. Barash previously was a partner with Reid & Priest in New York, where he was the head of Reid & Priest's mergers and acquisitions practice, and he was an investment banker at Merrill Lynch, where he was the head of Merrill Lynch's utility merger and acquisitions advisory service.

Recent Publications

Government Wins Significant Spoofing Conviction, in Program on Corporate Compliance and Enforcement, a blog of NYU Law's Program on Corporate Compliance, September 29, 2020.

White-Collar and Regulatory Enforcement: What Mattered in 2019 and What to Expect in 2020, in Harvard Law School Forum on Corporate Governance and Financial Regulation, February 4, 2020.

White Collar and Regulatory Enforcement: What to Expect in 2018, in Columbia Law School's Blog on Corporations and the Capital Markets, January 31, 2018.