

Lori S. Sherman

Associate, Antitrust

P: 212.403.1392

F: 212.403.2392

LSSherman@wlrk.com

Lori S. Sherman joined the Antitrust Department as an associate at Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz in 1999.

Ms. Sherman received a B.A. from the State University of New York at Stony Brook in 1987. Ms. Sherman completed a J.D. from New York Law School in 1990, where she served as editor-in-chief of the New York Law Review. After law school, Ms. Sherman served as a law clerk to Honorable Roger J. Miner in the U.S. Court of Appeals Second Circuit.

Ms. Sherman is a member of The Association of the Bar of the City of New York, the American Bar Association and the Federal Bar Council.

Clerkships

Honorable Roger Jeffrey Miner, United States Court of Appeals, Second Circuit, 1990 – 1991

Recent Publications

The Federal Reserve and the Antitrust Division Provide Updated Guidance on Bank Merger Analysis, in The Exchange, ABA Section of Antitrust Law (Spring 2015).

Foreign Investment Laws Can Impact Deals, in Expert Guide: Competition & Anti Trust Law 2014.

FTC Lowers Merger Filing Thresholds, in Bank and Corporate Governance Law Reporter Volume 44 Number 1, March 2010.