Taylor Custer is an associate in Wachtell Lipton's Restructuring and Finance Department.

Taylor graduated from Middlebury College and Harvard Law School. While in law school, he taught a section of Professor Michael Sandel's "Justice" course, served as an Editor of the Harvard Law School Bankruptcy Roundtable, and argued in the final round of the Ames Moot Court Competition. As part of that competition, he and his team won the Best Brief award.

Before joining the firm, he worked at Morgan Stanley.
